

Figure 3.7C1 — Mechanism shares vs $k\delta$ (interface sharpness), fixed $\omega/N = 1$

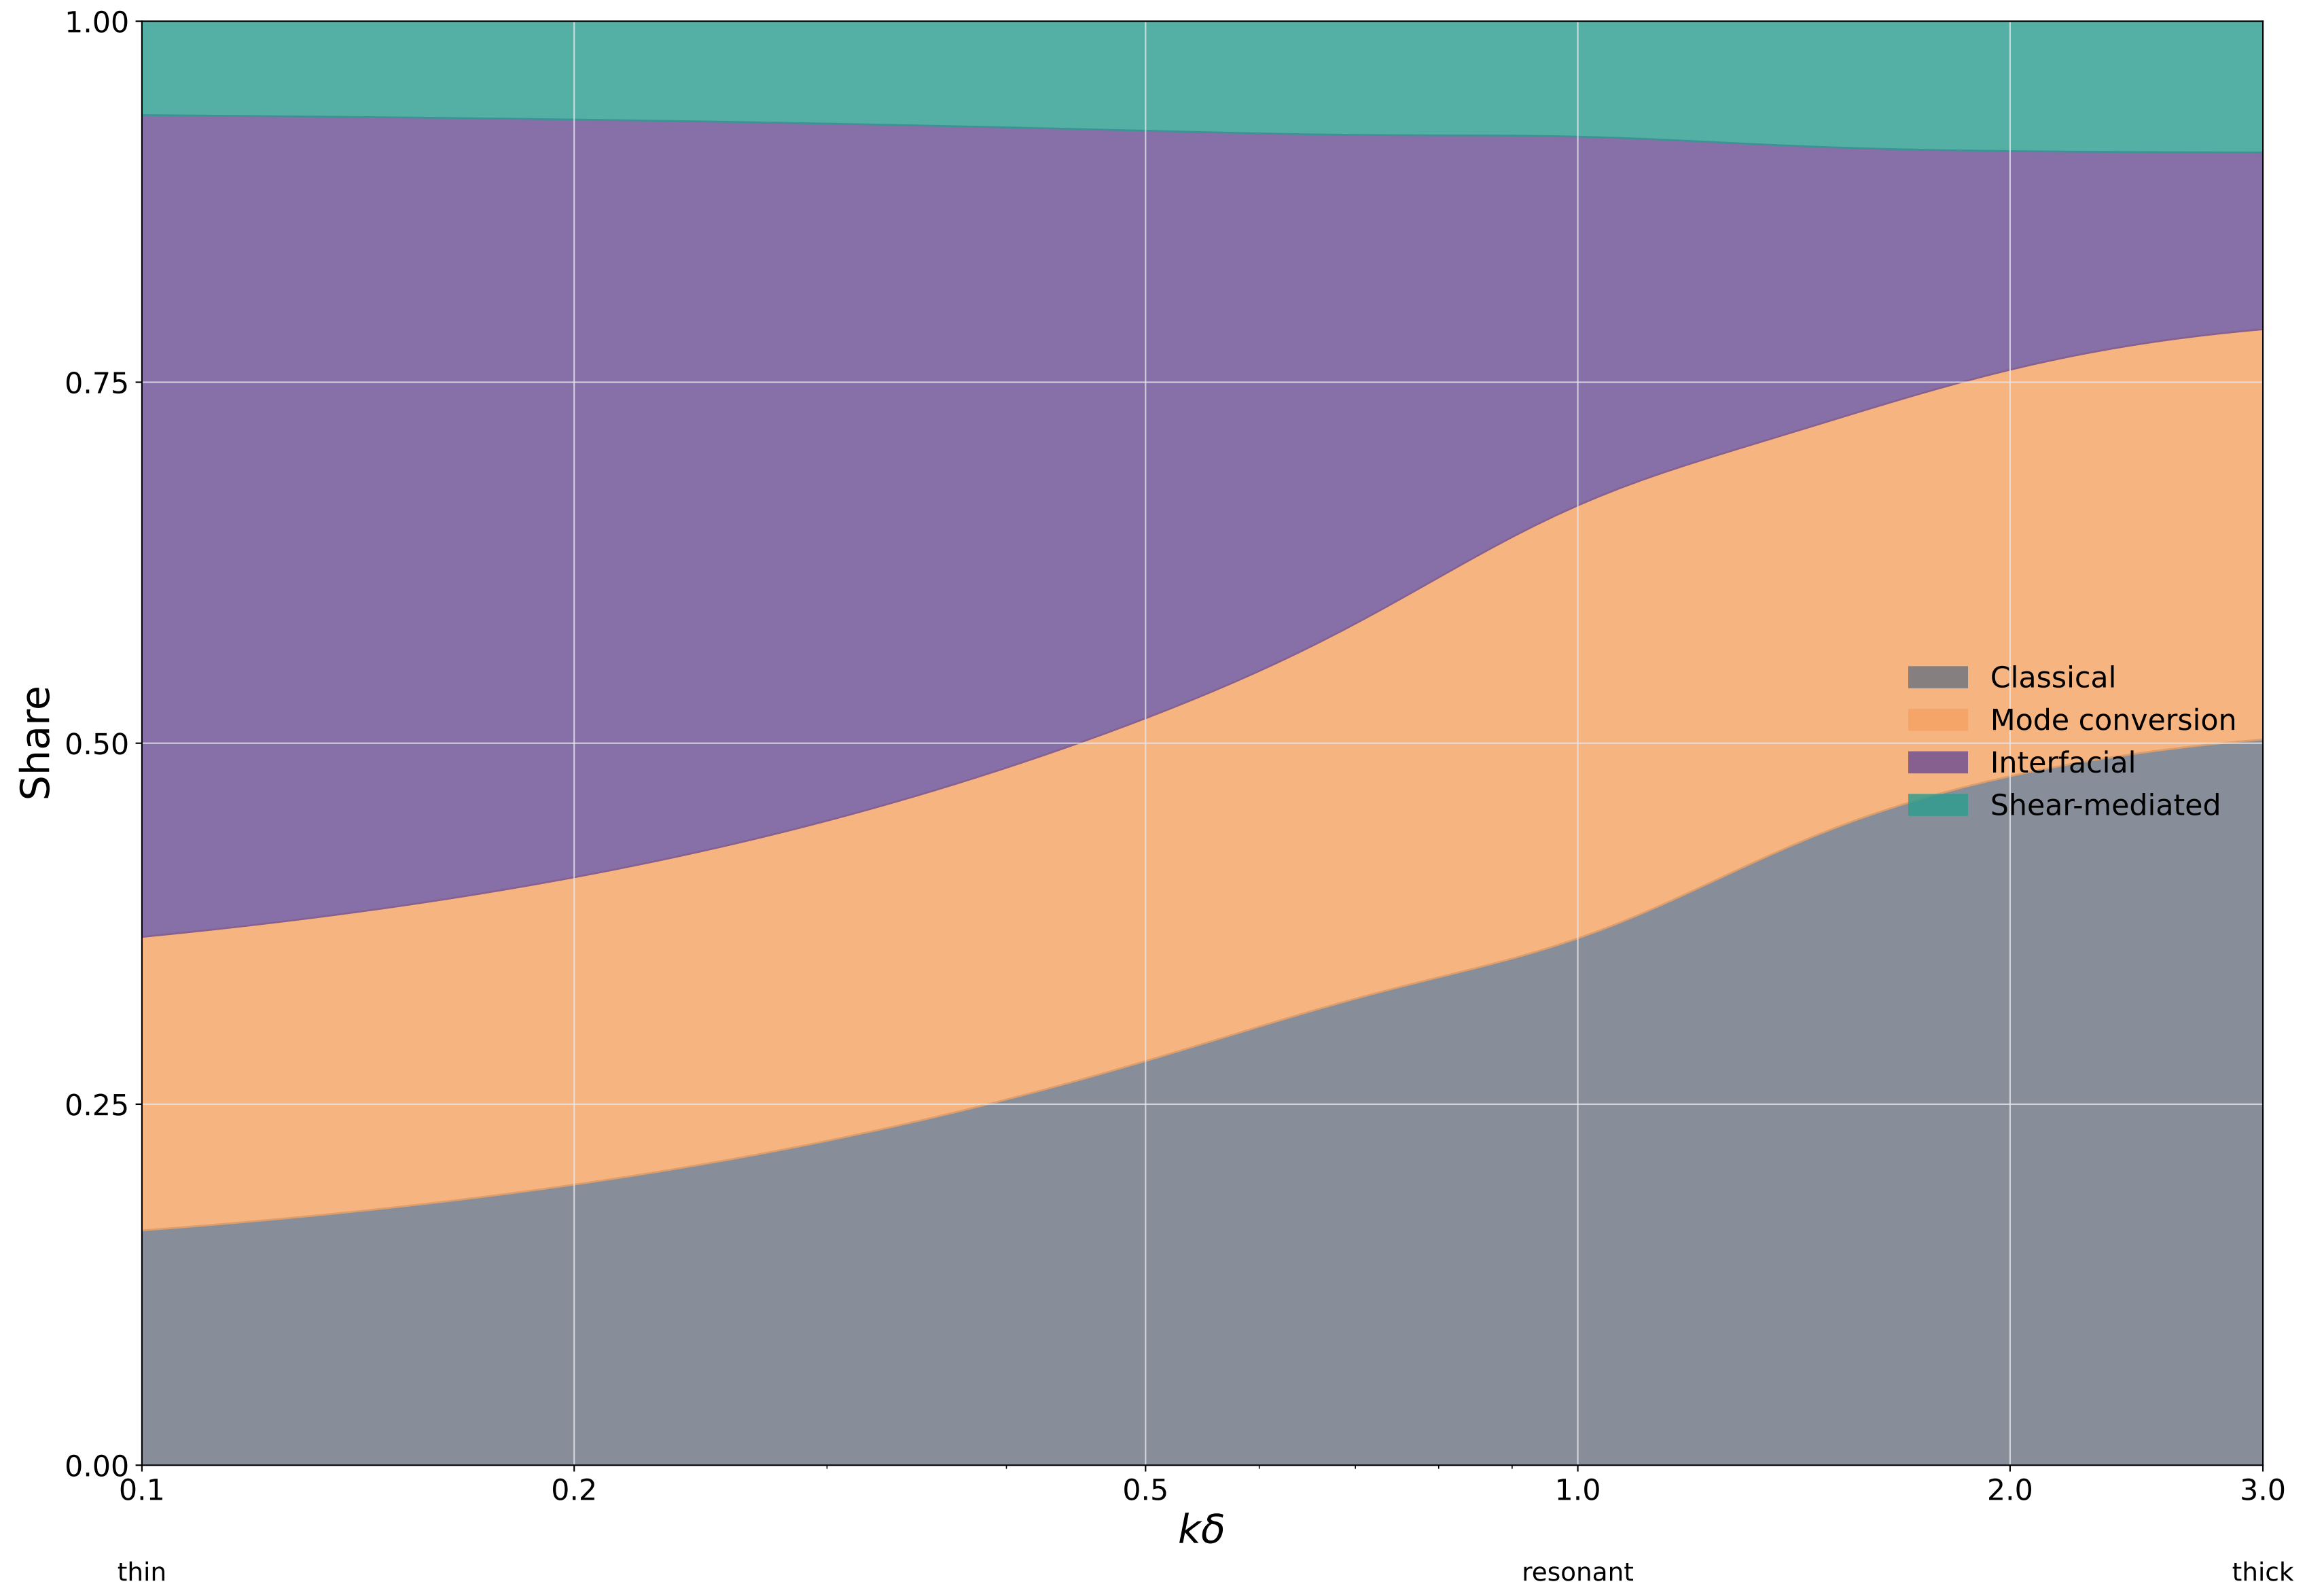

Figure 3.7C1. Interfacial share peaks for sharp, high-contrast transitions (low $k\delta$) and decays as the interface becomes diffuse (large $k\delta$). Classical share increases complementarily; conversion and shear change little at fixed ω/N .