

Bright regions indicate parameter pairs where shear-mediated loss dominates; peak influence occurs near $\omega/N \approx 1$ under marginal Ri , and decays at higher Ri or $\omega/N > 1$.